2	ADOPTION OF ONLEY PARKE STATE ROADS & PRISON DIRVE	Meeting commenced 19:05
2,1		Cllr. Lomax advised both Chris Bond and David Parker form NCC have been unable to liaise with WCC to date to discuss the matter further. NCC wishes o discuss with appropriate organisations to hold a meeting and site visit, Catherine will look into the numerous application applied for over the years by Rye Hill, it is felt details of prison drive must be recorded somewhere concerning if to adoptable standard. D.Cooper would like to know if the NCC are looking to adopt the approach road before Onley Park estate roads. D.F wishes to know why the approach road is not maintained by Carillion and why so many pots holes have not been dealt with. D.Cooper felt with the amount of correspondence back and forth is out of date information with both WCC & NCC. David Finch requested the revue to take place to complete the survey with NCC. D.F also stated in Chris Bonds letter Severn Trent is to adopt water and fowl water supply.	Cllr. Catherine Lomax to arrange meeting via email to Chris Bond with Chairman and secretary for OPRA and to include Catherine. Secretary confirms Severn Trent already adopted fowl water supply including the foul water drainage system.
